

Michigan Invitational Quiz

Kalamazoo Michigan

November 21st, 2009

What?

The Michigan Invitational is a team based quiz tournament. Each team will quiz six times during the round robin qualification rounds. The top eighteen will compete in a single-elimination tournament.

Who?

Local church teams as well as open cup teams are invited to participate. Open cup teams may be made up of quizzers from two churches in order to allow teams not having five members to combine for a full team. Open cup teams must not be constructed as all-star teams and require permission of the tournament director.

When?

November 21, 2009. Quizzing will begin at 9 am (EST) with a coaches meeting at 8:30. Registrations must be received by November 8th.

Where?

Kalamazoo 1st Church of the Nazarene. Kalamazoo is in Southwest Michigan about mid-way between Chicago and Detroit.

How Much?

$30.00/team ($25.00 for additional teams). Entry fee is non-refundable. Registration may be done by phone, mail, E-mail, or on the Web. Entry fee must be received to hold team slot. Make checks payable to Kalamazoo 1st Church of the Nazarene.
